

Carolinas Council for Affordable Housing

State Council Membership Renewal or Application

The greatest benefit of becoming a Carolinas Council for Affordable Housing (CCAH) member is that you become a part of a diverse group of business people who are involved in all aspects of the affordable housing industry in the states of North and South Carolina. CCAH membership includes owners, developers, management companies, equity companies, accountants, attorneys, non-profit agencies as well as companies that supply goods and services to the affordable housing industry. CCAH provides valuable training in all aspects of the affordable housing industry with reduced attendance fees for members. CCAH is a state affiliated member of the National Organization, the Council for Affordable and Rural Housing (CARH).
